Boiler Malfunction Displaces 15 Families in Maple Heights

The Red Cross provides temporary shelter for displaced residents at the new Lamplight Inn of Maple Heights

Maple Heights, OH, February 2, 2010: A boiler malfunction occurred in the Maple Heights apartments causing a major gas leak and an evacuation of all residents.

The Maple Heights Fire Department arrived promptly on the scene to seal and evacuate the entire apartment. Due to no gas or heat, residents will not be able to stay in their homes for roughly 3 days.

The Red Cross has set up temporary housing at the Lamplight Inn of Maple Heights and has donated cots, blankets, food and supplies for the evacuees.
