Press Release

Lamplight Communities, LLC Acquires Emeritus at Laurelwood in Dayton, OH

Family-Owned Lamplight Communities began operations of the Emeritus at Laurelwood Community July 1, 2010

Dayton, OH, July 9, 2010: Toronto, OH-based Lamplight Communities, LLC has acquired operations of Emeritus at Laurelwood, the 114-unit Senior Community in Dayton, OH. The newly named Lamplight Inn of Dayton is an Assisted Living & Alzheimer's community. This is the third property bought by Lamplight Communities in 2010. Lamplight Inn of Dayton is applying to accept the Ohio Assisted Living Waiver through the Area Agency on Aging PSA2.

In addition to accepting the Medicaid Waiver, Lamplight Inn of Dayton is paying close attention to their Alzheimer's floor. "We are looking to change the physical dynamics of our Alzheimer's floor to create a more comforting space for all of our residents," says Severine Petras, CEO of Lamplight Communities. "We are committed to providing an environment with superior quality and compassionate care."

"We believe that Lamplight Inn of Dayton will be our premier community. It has beautifully kept grounds, a great staff, and all the amenities that can allow our residents to maintain their independence with the proper support and required care," states Petras. "Many of the employees have been here for several years. We appreciate the dedication these employees have given to the residents and will continue to build upon that trust."

Lamplight Communities is a family-owned business committed to providing residents with superior quality and compassionate care regardless of their economic resources. Lamplight Communities partners with family members, caregivers, health professionals and the surrounding local communities.
